

Toyota Quantum 4x4

The Toyota Quantum 4x4 is the ideal choice for lodge tours across Namibia and Southern Africa, offering comfortable seating for up to 11 passengers, or 7 passengers with luggage. Perfect for larger groups, it provides ample space, versatility, and proven reliability for seamless journeys between lodges and safari destinations.

Equipped with a powerful and very efficient 2.8L turbo diesel engine and a smooth 6-speed manual transmission, the Quantum features permanent four-wheel drive with selectable low range, ensuring confident and stable handling on all terrains – from gravel roads and rough tracks to sandy riverbeds.

Its 70-litre diesel tank allows for travel distances of approximately 450 km without refuelling, making it ideal for long transfers between lodges and camps. Inside, passengers benefit from practical comfort and convenience features such as air conditioning, power steering, USB connectivity, and a radio system, enhancing the travel experience for both driver and guests throughout their journey.
